

Michelle Wilen, vice president of education

1. What are your current roles at TI?

I serve on the executive board as the vice president of education. I also participate on the Education and Membership Committees.

2. How long have you been a member of TI?

My husband Adam and I joined 11 years ago.

3. What do you do for work and in your free time?

I am on the board and volunteer at Jewish Family. I also volunteer with Ashland public schools. In my free time, I enjoy paddle boarding, and watching my girls skate and play soccer.

4. What excites you most about the future of TI?

I am pleased to see the Nursery and Religious schools, and youth programming moving forward in new and exciting directions. Knowing that TI is my community is comforting. There are so many people who work hard to make this a special place, and it's great to think about what we can accomplish.
