

SELICHOT PROGRAM: CHARACTER COUNTS!

To help prepare for the High Holy Days, please join us as Temple Israel (Natick), Congregation Or Atid (Wayland), Temple Beth Sholom (Framingham) and Temple Beth Am (Framingham) join together for our Annual MetroWest Community Selichot Observance:

“The Science of Character & The Making of a Mentsh”

Saturday evening, September 16th

AT TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM, 50 PAMELA ROAD, FRAMINGHAM

Schedule:

Havdalah & Dessert: 8:30pm

Film and Discussion: 9:15pm

Selichot Service: 10:00pm

What are the traits of character you most admire in others?
As we enter a New Year, what are the traits of your character you wish you could strengthen?

How might you develop practices to accomplish that?

In mid-September, people around the world will celebrate Character Day.

On Selichot evening, we bring “Character Day” home to Metrowest

We invite you to an exploration of the nature of character, through the viewing and discussion of two short films: The Science of Character and The Making of a Mentsh

Program and Service led by the clergy of all of our participating congregations
